Getting started

Many people experience our brand by seeing one of the thousands of presentations Red Hatters deliver each year.

From Summit keynotes to conference-room sales meetings, we want our public face to be coherent and recognizable. Our content must be meaningful and relevant to our audiences. Our stories should be told in a clear, compelling way.

Quick tip
For more information on how to update the confidential designator, learn more here.

Update confidential designator here

Updating the confidential designator:

Update the designator in Google Slides by choosing “Slide,” then “Edit Theme.” Scroll up to the top. Copy the appropriate designation into the “Confidential designator” field in the upper right.

Red Hat associates only

Change the designator on the theme slide to:

Confidential: Red Hat associates only

Use this designation for a confidential presentation that can only be shared with Red Hat associates. The Red Hat associate(s) who receive this deck can share it with other Red Hat associate(s), but no one else.

Red Hat associates only, no further distribution

Change the designator on the theme slide to:

Confidential: Red Hat associates only, No further distribution

Use this designation for a confidential presentation intended only for the Red Hat associate(s) who receive it originally. The Red Hat associate(s) who receive this presentation cannot share it with anyone—inside or outside of Red Hat.

Red Hat associate and NDA partner use only, no further distribution

Change the designator on the theme slide to:

Confidential: Red Hat associate and NDA partner use only, No further distribution

Use this designation for a confidential presentation intended only for the Red Hat associate(s) and partner(s) with signed NDA who receive the deck originally. The Red Hat and NDA partner associate(s) who receive this deck cannot share it with anyone—even other Red Hat and partner associate(s).
